

Deak Roh

Director for Special Operations and Combatting Terrorism Partnerships

Daniel "Deak" Roh is the Director for Special Operations and Combatting Terrorism Partnerships in the Office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Special Operations and Combatting Terrorism, Office of the Undersecretary of Defense for Policy. The directorate's primary responsibilities include the development of irregular warfare and competition below the level of armed conflict policy and strategy; interagency integration of irregular warfare concepts, strategies for building the capacity of Allied and partner nations to conduct special operations and combat terrorism; management of the Regional Defense

Counter Terrorism and Irregular Warfare Fellowship Program; and advocacy of the NATO SOF Headquarters.

Prior to his current position, Deak was the Russia Policy Chief, OSD Policy International Security Affairs, from 2014 to mid-2017. During this time, Deak led the Russia Team in developing initiatives for the Secretary of Defense regarding the Russian Federation's aggression against Ukraine, a review of the Department's planning for the Defense of NATO against Russian aggression, and reorientation of the Department posture to account for a return of great power competition regarding Russia.

Deak has worked for multiple administrations in the Office of the Secretary of Defense over the past 19 years, focusing primarily on European and Eurasian security and defense relations. Other previous assignments include Country Director, United Kingdom and Ireland; Country Director, Romania and Bulgaria; Junior Country Director, Russia; and Special Assistant to the DASD Russia, Ukraine, Eurasia.

Deak holds an MA from the Catholic University of America, a BA from the Pennsylvania State University, and is a graduate of the Department of Defense Executive Leadership Development Program. He is the recipient of the Secretary of Defense Exceptional Civilian Service Award with Oak Leaf, and the International Security Affairs Impact Award. Deak is a resident of Washington D.C.